MEMO

To: MIB 7107 Students, Academic Year 2026/2027
From: Assoc. Prof. Aaron Ecel, Team Leader
Date: September 08, 2026
Subject: Course Work One Notice

This memo notifies all MIB 7107 students, Academic Year 2026/2027, of the arrangements for the next class session and for Course Work One.

Next week's session, on Monday, September 14, 2026 (17:30 to 21:30 hrs), will comprise a guest lecture of one and a half (1.5) hours, followed by the Course Work One assessment. All students are required to attend for the full duration of the session.

The Course Work One assessment will examine the following areas, which students are advised to prepare exhaustively:

1. Financial Globalisation (to be covered in the guest lecture).
2. The Flat World and Non Flat World Debate.
3. The Great Globalisation Debate (Hyperglobalisation, Scepticism, and Transformationalism).
4. Global Trade Governance (The WTO Framework)

Course Work One will be administered as an invigilated, closed book assessment of one (1) hour's duration, held immediately following the guest lecture. No substitute test is administered in lieu of this assessment. Students are advised to plan accordingly and to be available for the entire scheduled session.
